

NGCV News

Spring 2018

Amid exciting preparations across the region for Great Exhibition of the North (opening 22nd June), NGCV is preparing to launch City of Dreams, there is innovation a-plenty through Creative Fuse NE, Family Explorers NE success continues and Sunderland launches Twenty Four Seven, to transform their city.

City of Dreams raring to go!

We've talked to hundreds of partners and 1000 children and young people about an ambitious 10-year mission to engage all under 25's in Newcastle and Gateshead in transformative cultural experiences. Read more

Celebrating creative fusion

Our cultural sector is adding value through involvement in fully-funded research, innovation support and inspirational events delivered with our 5 universities through Creative Fuse North East. Read more

7000 families talking about culture

Families in the region are finding out what's on, making recommendations and gaining confidence to try new things through our Family Explorers North East initiative . Read more

Sunderland soars!

Building on the momentum of their City of Culture bid, Sunderland Culture launches the Twenty Four Seven programme to transform the city.

Read more

You are receiving this email because you opted in at our website or were recommended as a recipient by one of our ten member organisations

Our mailing address is: NGCV c/o Theatre Royal, 100 Grey Street, Newcastle NE1 6BR

<http://ngcv.tv>

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences